

For Immediate Release

April 2, 2007

For More Information Contact:

Ellen Motts

609-419-0404 x 110

emotts@ja-nj.org

CHRIS WRONSKY ELECTED TO JUNIOR ACHIEVEMENT
STATE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Princeton, NJ - Chris Wronsky, Director of Human Resources at Lockheed Martin's business for Lockheed Martin Maritime Systems and Sensors (MS2) in Moorestown, NJ, has been elected to serve on the State Board of Directors of Junior Achievement of New Jersey (JA-NJ). Lockheed Martin has been a major supporter of JA's economic education and financial literacy programs for many years.

"Nation-wide, Lockheed Martin supports Junior Achievement, and we enjoy a strong link with JA's mission in New Jersey," says Insert quote.

Mr. Wronsky. "JA is a great driver in building stronger education programs and opportunities for our children, and that is a mission we embrace at Lockheed Martin." was appointed to his current position in August 2003. In this capacity, he has overall HR responsibility for the 5,000 employees at the Moorestown facility to include three represented organizations (ASPEP, IUE and IFPTE). He also provides HR support for the MS2 Executive Leadership Team residing in Moorestown, including MS2 Transformation activity.

Mr. Wronsky was appointed to his current position in August 2003. In this capacity, he has overall HR responsibility for more than 5,000 employees at the Moorestown facility.

Previously, Mr. Wronsky was Director of Human Resources for Lockheed Martin's business in Manassas, VA. Martin Undersea Systems. In this capacity, he had overall HR responsibility for business activities the MS2 - Undersea Systems Line of Business (LOB) which included major facilities in Manassas, VA; Syracuse and Mitchel Field, NY; Riviera Beach, FL and Irvine, CA.

Prior to re-joining Lockheed Martin, Mr. Wronsky was senior manager of U.S. Workforce Programs for International Business Machines. In that assignment, he was responsible for the design and development of workforce programs for IBM's 125,000 United States based employees.

Mr. Wronsky has a bachelor's degree in Industrial and Labor Relations from Cornell University, and is currently participating in the Executive Master's in Human Resource Leadership at Rutgers University. He most recently served as a South District Board Member for Junior Achievement of New Jersey.

About Lockheed Martin

Headquartered in Bethesda, MD, Lockheed Martin employs more than 140,000 people worldwide and is principally engaged in the research, design, development, manufacture, integration and sustainment of advanced technology systems, products and services. Lockheed Martin's Moorestown business is recognized as a world leader in advanced radar development and naval combat systems.

